A Brick Home is not Expensive

Quite the opposite! For only a few dollars more than for a well-built house of less enduring type you may have brick. For centuries your brick home will endure, without repair and with never the touch of painter's brush. Burnt clay is everlasting. A good price can always be had should you ever have to sell. Your brick home holds its value. So little is the difference in first cost, and so significant are the advantages, that people everywhere are building with brick for lasting economy. Let's talk it over.

TORRANCE BRICK CO.

Phone 38 Torrance All who ever lived in Arkansas are called to meet for a great picnic reunion all day Saturday, May 2, in Sycamore Grove Park.

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Steadman, who were severely burned on Wednesday of last week when an explosion occurred on the screen porch of their home, are rapidly recovering.

Although not free from bandages, they are sitting up. Mr. and Mrs. Steadman wish to thank the many friends and neighbors who so readily gave their assistance and have been so kind since by bringing lovely flowers and appetizing dishes. Mr. Steadman is employed by the Standard Oil Company, and the home is at 819 Cota avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mueller were among several Torrance members of the White Shrine who attended a Tacky party given in the chapter rooms at Hermosa Beach on Monday evening. A feature of the party was a cooked food sale, the recipe for each dish being attached.

Dr. W. H. Bruce of the Castle Apartments, who has been ill for two weeks and under treatment at a Glendale hospital, has so much improved in health that he has returned to Torrance to resume office duties.

The clipping book of the Women's Club of Torrance was mailed Tuesday by Mrs. Phoebe Milburn, chairman of publicity, to be entered in the district contest in Los Angeles on April 23.

OBITUARY

CHURCH NEWS

FIRST BAPTIST

J. Whitfield Green, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. G. Orion Solomon, superintendent. There are millions of boys and girls in our loved America without any Sunday school, teacher or Bible. There are thousands of churches without ministers. We are not among that number. Don't miss your great opportunity.

Morning service, 11 o'clock. Sermon, "God the Father and His Children." Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Sermon, "Master and Slave."

Baptist Young People meet at 6:45. Gen. John J. Pershing said from France: "We expect the church at home to keep the people patriotic. In peace or war Christianity is the only ideal. Young men and women, you need Christ and the church."

Wednesday night, it's a long step from Sunday to Sunday. The midweek service helps you to make it. It rests you, soul and body. A great man said: "If you have failed to make good in this life, I pray these do not fail to make ready for the next. Many a man will say 'I have missed my calling,' but no man need say 'I must miss heaven.'" Emerson said: "Heaven is the only thing we have just for the asking. He that cometh unto me I will in no wise cast out."

CENTRAL EVANGELICAL

Francis A. Zeller, Pastor. Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Bring the children and drop into the Bible class yourself. You will find it interesting.

Morning service, 11 o'clock. The pastor will address the boys, if keeping with the plan for Boys' Week. The girls, too, as well as parents, will find the talk of interest. The choir will sing "Miss Betsy Byrnes will sing 'Let Not Your Heart Be Troubled.'"

Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. "Stickers versus Quitters" is the sermon theme. Junior C. E. at 11 a. m. Senior and Intermediate C. E. at 6:30 p. m. Midweek prayer meeting and Bible study Wednesday evening. Choir practice Wednesday evening.

FOUR-SQUARE TABERNACLE

South Walnut Street Sunday school, 9:45 a. m. Morning service, 11 o'clock. Evening service, 7:30 o'clock. Prayer service daily, 11 to 12. Wednesday evening, 7:30, prayer service. Children's church, 2:30 p. m. Saturday. Both services Sunday will be conducted by students from Angelus temple. Everyone is welcome at all services.

FIRST METHODIST

Smith Reopens Ferncroft Cafe; New Policies

Former C. P. R. Chef Put in Charge of Kitchen Here

Smith's Ferncroft Cafe was opened this morning under the personal management of Russell Smith, new proprietor of the restaurant.

In opening the cafe Mr. Smith announces that he will make a specialty of club breakfasts, business men's luncheons, and table d'hote dinners. A. McCreedy, former chef in the dining car service of the Canadian Pacific Railway and chef at the Banff and Lake House, is in charge of the kitchen.

One of the features of the remodeled cafe is the reception department near the entrance, where a davenport and writing desk are situated for the convenience of patrons. Mr. Smith has been a restaurateur in Torrance for three years, and will continue to operate Smith's Restaurant on Cabrillo avenue.
